Canyon River GC

Canyon River Golf Club, designed by the internationally acclaimed firm of Schmidt Curley and opened in 2006, meanders through towering pines and native grasslands. Numerous lakes and riparian marshes located throughout the property come into play on 7 seven holes. The course was rated #9 new in the nation in 2007, #1 in Montana in 2008 and was named by Golf Digest as one of the top ten new public courses to play in 2008.
