PAUL FORD AGAIN IS RUNNER UP IN BIG TITLE MATCH

green, losing both holes and the match and 7.
Once again Paul Ford was forced to acknowledge the humbler position of runner-up in the amateur golf championship that embraces Washington, Oregon, Montana, Idaho and British Columbia. Last year he lost in the finals to H. Chandler Egan and the year before he was semifinalist to Egan in the tournament held in Seattle.

year before he was semifinalist to Egan in the tournament held in Seattle.

Pretty Golf in Morning.

Absolutely the prettlest golf and the hardest-fought match of the week characterized the morning round of the two men fighting for the biggest golf honor of the Northwest. Ford was around in 73 and his opponent in 74, the disparity in strokes and holes being due to two overs played by Smith at the fourth and the seventh holes.

At the fourth Ford, with a perfect from of 225 yards got home and sunk his putt for two under par. But, the feature hole of the morning round, and of the week, in fact, was the sixteenth. His tee shot, striking a rock, jumped at right angles into the woods among trees and rocks. A pitch of sixty yards clear of the trouble with the flag only twenty yards farther, and trouble heryond, confronted the youth. He shot and holed this ball with a twelve-foot but?

running his putt. The round had left Smith one up.
Smith started the afternoon round with 3-Ford's chance being lost on a dead stymie. Another hole went to Smith with a provide chance being lost on a dead stymie. Another hole went to Smith with one under par 3 at the second green. At the next, facing a half stymie Ford putted for the win but knocked his opponent's ball in the culand lost, 5 to 4 to enter for the win but knocked his opponent's ball in the culand lost, 5 to 4 to enter for a the win but knocked his opponent's ball in the culand lost, 5 to 4 to enter for a win at the culand lost, 6 to 4 to a win at the culand lost, 6 to 4 to a win at the forth green, the Seattle boy rather carelessing jabled the ball. This was followed by another dead stymie a that the cular He jets missed it.

Another better dareless putter a half at the cular half of the sevent was shalled when Smith was stymied. The Portland man won the difficult eight, 6 to 7, Ford taking two difficult eight, 6 to 7, Ford taking two saved as point with a jet-foot putt at the cular hole. With 7 and 9 let for millist will meet in the Follate tournament at the Seattle Wednesday morning. Rudolph Wilhelm the Oregon crack who will be seen at Seattle this week in the open and in the amateur events, won the Pacific Northwest open championship today with astounding rounds of 71 and 69. The latter figure is the record for the course and the two rounds go to make a day's golf that many will shoot at for a long time. Forrest Watson, the great medal golf player of Portland, who will also be at Seattle this week was second in the open, with 296 as against Wilhelm's 291 for the four rounds. Robert Johnstone, the Seattle Golf Club professionals with 298. His morning round today was a remarkable bit of second mine golf, He was out in 40 and back in 30 for a 70 that has been tied only by Wilhelm.

The women's pandicap event was wondy and back in 30 for a 70 that has been tied only by Wilhelm.

RACE IS CLOSE IN AMERICAN THIS AFTERNOON

The American League race continis to be a pretty event and during the past two weeks there have been to outstanding features. One is that the 'Cleveland Indians are gradully ming back to the field and are not oseriously regarded as they were a onth ago when, with Washington, they were breezing several longths in who finally seem to be getting a brand of pitching that is not of the bush league order. The acquisition of Hamilton of St. Louis and Mitchell of Cleveland, two corking, good southpaws when in form, may greatly assist the Detroiters in the remainder of the fight.

The race is still very much a seventeam event, which is to say that the Philadelphia Athletics is the only club that certainly can be counted out of the list of pennant possibilities. The St. Louis Browns, in spite of their lowly ranking, have played high-class ball in streaks and a spurt, such as Detroit recently has enjoyed, would run Fielder Jones' men up among the leaders.

The Boston Rad Sox are getting excellent pitching of late, and they have managed to pull up over the 500 mark. They are following the pace at present, but at any time might spurt. Certainly Carrigan's clan is capable of spurting. The Yanks have been banging along somewhat on the in-and-out order, but always more 'in' than 'out.'' At times they seem minded to run away in the league and then as suddenly they lapse into a hitless lethargy. These swatduration.

There seems to be much less cetrainduration.

There seems to be much less cetrainty to the American League race than there is to the National. In the senior major league body the season's honors rest unquestionably among four clubs, while with a salutary effect in the box wiffice.

BOXING SHOW FOR EVERETT

Everett is going to celebrate the Fourth of July with big doings next Tuesday and one of the features is a boxing show to be given in the baseball park. The main event will be between Travie Davis, of Everett, and Harry Anderson, of Vancouver. Davis has improved wonderfully in the last year ad his friends expect him to take a fall out of the boy who bested Eddie Pinkman.

There will be some other good bouts on the bill.

Charles Francis Manning has charge of the show, which means that the public will be well cared for. If it is raining Tuesday afternoon Charles Francis will have a canvas roof spread over the ring so that the boxers can go right on with their quarrel.

GREAT FALLS MAKES CHANGES

Manager Hester, of the Great Falls club, has released Fred Chick, George Engle and Coen, according to a wire from Eutte, and is looking around for talent to brace up his club.

Bill Hurley is demanding his full salary and is consulting attorneys to look after his interests.

Hester will likely make some other changes as soon 2s he gets his bearings, for several men of the Great Falls club do not want to play there.

DOUBLE HEADER

Vancouver and Seattle will play a doubleheader this afternoon, the first game starting at 2 o'clock. The same teams will play here Monday afternoon, two games Tuesday afternoon and one game Wednesday afternoon. They will then go to Vancouver and play the rest of the week, returning here for the Sunday game.

In the past morning and afternoon games were played here on July th, but this year, the fans will be given a bargain bill, both games being played in the afternoon.

It has so many rules that 80 per cent of the players and 82 per cent of the usual run of officials are not familiar with them, so under this condition a code of ethics will be added. According to the proposed code, it will be brutally unclubby to: According to the proposed code, it will be brutally uncluby to:

Niassage an opponent on the point of the jaw with the heel of the hand:

Thrust an 18-inch calf between two 12-inch calves if the 12-inch calves happen to be carrying the ball out of hand reach;

Call a rival anything more than a cockeyed lumberlack and insinuate that he came to college to take advanced horseshoeing;

In addition, the coaches are to be put on their honor not to do the thinking for the team and transmit the net results of their brainstorms by a water carrier. Offside in an endeavor to cheat the play a trifle is to be regarded as equal to pouring your tea into the saucer and blowing on it for refrigerating purposes, and hereafter umpires, referees and even field judges are to be treated as though they might be half-human and one-third white.

FRED CLARKE STRIKES IT RICH

Clarke, the veteran manager of the Pittsburgh club, resigned his job as head of the Pirates last winter to give Pittsburgh club, resigned his job as head of the Pirates last winter to give his time to his business affairs, to look after these days, and a matter of $10,000 a year from the Pittsburgh club is hardly a drop in the bucket to the financial side of the oil business of land in Kansas, and oil was discovered on his property a year ago. The latest report from the oil property controlled by Clarke is that he is getting 1,000 barrels daily. Clarge was well fixed with the world's goods before it was found that his land was valuable for oil, but now he bids fair to clean up a fortune which will put him in the millionaires' class. The former manager claims he is following the work of the Pittsburgh club under Manager Callahan, but that oil comes first on his schedule now, and baseball is merely a diversion.
