

SPORTS

GEORGE M. VARNELL,
EDITOR

13 PRO STARS TRY FOR POSTS ON RYDER TEAM

Four Places Still Open; Aces Battle Today
And Tomorrow to Fill Them; Squad
Meets British This Week

By Associated Press.
COLUMBUS, Monday, June 22.—Whiffy Cox of Brooklyn scored a par-breaking 71 to lead at the end of the first eighteen-hole round in the struggle for the four extra places on America's Ryder Cup golf team at Scioto today.

Frank Walsh, Chicago, and Craig Wood, Buffalo, were tied for second, one shot behind Cox. Johnny Golden of New York failed to show up.

By Associated Press.
CLOT CLUB, Columbus, Ohio, Monday, June 22.—Sir Walter Hagen's three-throwing circus got under way today with the first qualifying round to fill four positions on the American Ryder Cup team, which later this week will tangle with Great Britain's best for the professional golf championship of the world.

All of Sir Walter's actors arrived yesterday and, despite an intense heat, toured the Scioto course in preparation for today's matches.

Captain Charles Whitcombe and his British team took gallery seats today, as they will tomorrow, while thirteen Americans struggled for berths on the team. The rivals for the four positions are Charles Hilgendorf and Al Watrous, Detroit; William Burke, New York; Wiley Cox, Brooklyn; Henry Clui, Bridgeport, Conn.; Ed Dudley, Wilmington, Del.; Olin Dutra, Los Angeles; Johnny Golden, New York; Willie Klein, New York; Denny Shute, Cleveland; Joe Turnesa, New York; Frank Walsh, Chicago, and Craig Wood, Buffalo.

These thirteen will play thirty-six holes today and a similar number tomorrow.

On the team now are Hagen, captain; Gene Sarazen, Johnny Farrell, Leo Diegel, Horton Smith and Al Espinosa.

The English team, idle today and tomorrow, will find time to give the new American balloon ball more tests. Yesterday the Englishmen tried the new pellet for the first time but made no comments.

One of the favorites on the American list of qualifiers today was young Ed Dudley of Wilmington, Del., who shot thumbs at Dayton last week to capture the Western Open with the sensational score of 280. Dudley has had two rounds at Scioto, one in 72 and the other in 73. Another was Johnny Golden, winner of the $25,000 Agua Caliente Open last winter.

The British players yesterday were greatly handicapped by the heat. With the personnel of the American team completed tomorrow night, the professionals will rest Wednesday and Thursday.

On Friday two ball four-fours will be played. Saturday eight singles matches are on the program.

This will be the third in the official series for the Ryder Cup. Americans winning the first at Worcester, 9½ to 2½; and Great Britain two years ago at Mooretown, 7 to 5.

Other members of the British forces were Abe Mitchell, Bert Hodson, L. J. Easterbrook, George Duncan, W. E. Davies, E. R. Whitcombe, Fred Robson, Archie Compston and Arthur Havers.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

Condition Excellent
The second catcher, Paul Spangler of Akron, quit the ring at the end of a round thoroughly battered by a cool, calculating, vicious attack.

Stribling's conditioning, as a matter of fact, has advanced so rapidly that the Macon youth could battle for the championship tomorrow night if it were necessary. He will work only three more nights, tomorrow, Thursday and Sunday of this week. Then he will rest and exercise lightly until fight time.

CIRCUS SETTING ECHO OF FORMER DAYS; BILL READY

Vaudeville Junketers and Their Tricks Amuse Populace While Macon Boy
Impresses Ring Experts

By EDWARD J. NEIL
Associated Press Sports Writer

BAUGA LAKE, Ohio, Monday, June 22.—It might be a traveling circus camped for a few weeks on the shores of one of the lakes that dot Ohio—there's a babyhoo man and a clown, sideshows, the Ferris wheel, roller coasters, and all the rest.

Instead it's a fight camp. Will Stribling's training camp, probably the strangest that ever housed a challenger for the world's heavyweight crown.

Old Atmosphere Clings
All the showmanship of the "four novelty" Grahams, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

Will Stribling, the acrobatic troupe that was the Stribling family—Pa, Ma, Willie and Babe—before the fight game lifted one to the stardom of the world.

1932 GAMES BIGGEST 135 Events Planned for Next Olympiad ANGELINOS THRILLED

By Associated Press.
LOS ANGELES, Monday, June 22.—More than one hundred and thirty-five distinctive events will be crammed into the sixteen-day schedule of the 1932 Olympic Games here, making it the most comprehensive international contest ever staged. This was the announcement of the Los Angeles organizing committee yesterday, when dates and places for the respective sports were given out following cable approval from Count De Baillet-Latour, president of the International Olympic Committee.

It will be the first time that the Olympic games have massed into such a short period of time. Beginning July 30 with the opening ceremonies, over which President Hoover will be asked to preside, until the closing pageant August 14, the program calls for continuous activity on at least nine stadia and water courses.

The track and field events, which will feature the cosmopolitan classic, will be held at the Olympic Stadium, with its seating capacity of 105,000, July 31 to August 7, inclusive, while the swimming championships take place at a special plunge near the stadium August 6 to 13.

Other important events include: Rowing, August 9 to 13, Long Beach. Boxing, August 9 to 13, Olympic Auditorium. Wrestling, August 1 to 7, Olympic Auditorium.

Fencing, July 31 to August 13, Armory, Olympic Park. Yachting, August 5 to 12, Los Angeles Harbor.

Sandwiched into this program will be a demonstration American football game at the Olympic stadium, August 8, and two lacrosse matches at the same place on the nights of August 7 and 8. While there has been no announcement, it is understood that two ranking university elevens may be called upon to stage the grid classic for the edification of the foreign athletes and visitors.

The other events on the program include field hockey, cycling, modern pentathlon, gymnastics, equestrian sports, rifle marksmanship, and fine art displays.

The opening day parade will be an impressive affair, with 2,000 or more athletes passing in review before the tribune of honor, where they will take the Olympic oath.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.

Merely to show he can do other things besides chop wood, Paulino Uzcudun, upper, who boxes at Reno against Max Baer July 4, turns chef. He can also wrestle, dance and is quite a linguist. Lower, Pat Redmond, an Irishman, does a tumbling act off the end of Primo Carnera's fist. Needless to say, he didn't take many of these flops in their recent bout, but went sound to sleep in the first round. The upside down pose preceded the nap.