CHICAGO GREETS HUSKY OARSMEN

SIE WITH THE WASHINGTON CREW. Chicago, Saturday, June 8.

—The Windy City welcomed the Husky oarsmen today in great style. The citizenry of this great city did not know what the excitement was all about, but the Huskies were given all the deference and consideration of heroes just the all because Dr. Strauss, Washington's kindly alumnus here, organized things wonderfully to do the Huskies proud. The squad arrived this morning and was received at the station by a group of alumni headed by Dr. Strauss. The Cincinnati Reds undoubtedly have missed the clouting of Chick Hafey as well as his steadying influence since the veteran outfielder was taken sick a month ago, yet it may have been more than a coincidence that his abrupt departure from the scene of their activities coincided with the end of their seven-game losing streak.

Each had an aggregate of 223. Parks shot his morning round in 73.

The survivors of an original starting field of 157 yesterday in-cluded the defending champion. Olin Dutra, six former winners of by Ginsburg in two straight falls.

Singh lost a molar and suffered a badly cut upper lip in his enrounds of 73s, good for a Thomson's two preliminary rounds of 73s, good for a total of 146, gave him a two-stroke advantage over his closest pursuer, Alvin

(Butch) Krueger, the comparative-ly unknown pro from Beloit, Wis. who led the first round with a sub par 71. The pace-setting Jimmy also held a three-stroke margin over Gene Sarazen. The elements, plus a bad run of golf forced Tom Armour to quit on the fifteenth hole after he had amassed no less than seventeen strokes over par for that dis-tance. The same combination also took a toll of such cam-paigners as Wiffy Cox and Leo Diegel, who failed to make the grade for the qualifying quota of 161 for the first two rounds. Sarazen was the only favorite who was figured to be within striking distance of the blond, curly-haired Thomson. Sam Parks, Pitts-burgh pro, was four shots away from the top figure with 150 while Denny Shute of Philadelphia, win-ner of the 1933 British open; Al Espinosa of Cleveland, and Ted Turner of Pine Valley, N. J., were bracketed at 151
