Pato Margetic threw a big scare into Seattle fans in the 12th minute when he stole the ball from Stock and raced into the Seattle penalty area before being shut down. In the 43rd minute, Arno Steffenhagen was wide and high from 15 yards with a cannon

Roy called his team's passing "atrocious" and said, "I think we were hesitant all along." Dave Huson, Sting defender, said, "Every time we got the ball it was like you were on an island all alone and sharks were swimming all around you, snapping at vour heels." The Sting have had trouble on artificial surfaces all season "Everyone on the Sting doesn't like Astroturf," said Karl-Heinz Granitza, who quickly predicted a Sting victory Sunday. The shutout was the third for Paul Hammond since he replaced Jack Brand in goal nine games ago. He made four saves.

If the Sounders win the series in Chicago Sunday, they will return home to host the New York Cosmos in a best-of-three series that begins next Wednesday in the Kingdome, then would move to New York for the final two games. The Cosmos have a firstround bye.

U.W. rower helps U.S. to surprise win

MUNICH, West Germany (UPI) — One of the few surprises in the opening day of the World Rowing Championships was offered by a United States women's coxed-four crew which bested a more experienced West German boat to win in a time of 3 minutes 26.59 seconds.

Shyril Osteen, a University of Washington rower, was a member of the winning crew. Other rowers were Sue Tuttle, Hope Barnes and Holly Metcalf. The cox was Nanette Bernadou.

The win guaranteed the U.S. a berth in the final against a Soviet Union crew that was timed in 3:20.59. The U.S. win amazed Chris Korzenioski, the Polish-born American coach.

"They have only been together for 10 days," Korzenioski said, "and that was a superb performance by a young inexperienced crew. It is too early to talk of medals, but that race filled me with hope.'

been a different story." "We played the kind of game we're capable of playing tonight and therefore I would have to say the better team won," said Tampa Bay Coach Gordon Jago. "We're glad we defeated Vancouver now. because if they had advanced they would be a very tough team to beat."

The Whitecaps appeared to have tied the game late in the first half, but the goal by Ray Hankin, Vancouver forward, was disallowed because of a foul. Keelan made a last-minute save
