BABE'S GOOTH HOMER IN BIG TIME COSTS $10

Ruth Hits 35th of Season to Swell Grand Total; Pays Youngster to Return Ball; Browns Lose

By HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR., Associated Press Sports Writer. ABE RUTH has made 600 home runs in his major league career. In the third inning of the Yankee-St. Louis game yesterday he drove one of George Blaeholder's offerings far holder's offerings far over the bleacher roof at Sportsman's Park. It was his thirty-fifth four-hagger of the current season and brought his total for the eighteen years of his major league career up to 600, a mark never before attained or even threatened by any other major leaguer. The Babe reclaimed the pellet from the youngster who found it out in Grand Boulevard, giving in exchange $10 reward and a new autographed ball.

Homer Starts Rally

Homer Starts Rally The homer started the Yanks off on the winning rally in their 11-7 victory over the Browns. Lou Gehrig duplicated the swat a moment later. Philadelphia's champion Athletics and the Chicago White Sox hammered out twenty-four hits between them and although the Sox had a 14-10 edge in the hitting. Philadelphia won, 15 to 12. Roger Cramer and Dib Williams came through with timely homers.

timely homers. Washington's batters rammed out a total of fifteen hits off Clint Brown and Pete Jablonow-skil to take the fourth game of the series from Cleveland, 6 to 3, after losing the first three.

after losing the first three.

Boston and Detroit produced fewer hits in their clash, but seven bases on balls off Eddie Durham and Wilcy Moore more than made up for the absence of blows and the Red Sox tossed in five errors to make things easy for the Tigers to walk off with an 11 to 5 triumph.

Only one game, in the National League survived a spell of threatening weather. In it the Boston Braves took a close battle from the Pittsburgh Pirates by a 2 to 1 count to increase their margin to 1½ games in the Struggle for fifth place. Wally Berger's twenty-seventh homer of the year was the important blow, as Ben Cantwell held the Pirates to six hits while Boston made seven off Ervin Brame.

Coleman Stars As Ducks Win

PORTLAND, Or., Saturday, Aug. 22.—(27)—Ed Coleman's home run, scoring two ahead in the lifth broke a tic and was the big stroke toward Portiand's 7 to 3 victory over Los Angeles last night. Joe Bowman held the Angel batters to four scattered hits and won easily with the aid of Coleman's homer.

HEROES SEALS PUT ON ERROR FARCE

Tribe Coasts to 19 to 9 Victory Over San Francisco Club; Three Indian Errors Add to Comedy

> By KEN BINNS HAT good old feeling of what-the-heck evidently smote the San Francisco Seals last night as they saw the Indians catch up on their second inning two-run lead and then keep moving on, to win by 19 to 9. So the Seals set ont after a record, and made it.

When the game was ended they had perpetrated eight glaring errors, and the mounting, groaning. Nick Williams had crept back into the dank dungeons under the stands.

Eight errors in Coast League ballis quite a lot. Added to the three Seattle acquired, it made quite an evening for the boys to talk about. On top of that, the 19 Seattle runs represented—according to L. Lassen, statistician—the best total compiled by the Tribe since the year of the blue rain—1927.

Off Phil Page the Seals slammed 15 hits, six of them doubles. But he could afford to be loose and easy. Every time a new San Francisco pitcher took the mound, he was greeted with heavy booms.

The Tribe scored eight runs in

The Tribe scored eight runs in the second, two in the fourth, four in the fifth, five in the sixth. And merely to set a record themselves, they knocked the starting Seal pitcher, Curtis Davis, out in the second with three doubles—making four hits, all doubles, for his time of occupancy. Cox got one double in the first.

first.

The Seattle victory squared the series at two games apiece.

Sam Gibson, second only to Frank Shellenback in that matter of how many games won, goes to the New York Giants next year. His purchase was announced by the Giants yesterday. He would have been eligible for the draft and his sale before the middle of September had been considered a foregone conclusion.

He has twenty-one victories and nine defeats as his season's record. He was scheduled to pitch the first game against the Tribe tomorrow.

Shellenback Wins

LOS ANGELES, Saturday, Aug. 22.

— IP—Hollywood kidded Oakland along for five innings at Wrigley Field last night and finally got down to business in the sixth to register six runs and give Frank Snellenback, ace hurler of the league, his twenty-second victory of the season.

Shellenback let the boys down with six hits. The score was 9 to 2. Bunched hits in the sixth broke a 2-2-2 tie and Lee polished off the visitors with a homer in the seventh.

LAWLOR BESTS STONG IN TIGHT IN EIGHT ACTS PITCHING CLASH

Hard-Hitting of Alata and Holem Accounts for South Chicago Runs; 11 Seattle Players Left on Bases

Special to The Times.

OLORADO SPRINGS, Saturday, Aug. 21 .-Beaten in the semifinals of the American Legion's Western regional junior baseball tournament the Rainier Noble Post lads of Seattle are homeward bound today. Yesterday they lost a brilliant pitching duel to the South Chicago, Ill., boys, 4 to 2. The Rainiers were routed home by the Union Patific through the Grand Canyon, and the boys will have a chance to do a bit of sightseeing along the way. They will arrive in Seattle at 2:20 o'clock tomorrow aftrnoon.

In the other semifinal game yesterday, Stockton, Cal., nosed out New Orleans, 4 to 3, so those teams will battle today for the western championship, and the western championship, and the right to meet the eastern winner in the junior world series next week at Houston, Tex.

in the junior world series next week at Houston, Tex.
Ralph Stong pitched a brilliant game for the Rainiers yesterday, and deserved victory. He held the Chicagoans to five hits, but two doubles by Alata, and a double and a triple by Holem wrecked the airtight Rainier defense. The latter's double drove in one run and he scored later in the fourth, and his triple—a single that hit a pebble and bounced over "Bo" Gallagher's head in left field—drove in the other pair.

The Rainiers always had runners on the paths, but couldn't connect against the stellar pitching of Al Lawlor, who fanned ten.
Two double plays, Scupp to Harainer rallies, while Jabcynski in center field made four startling catches to cut off hits.

The Rainiers scored their only runs

The Rainiers scored their only runs in the sixth, when Dar Haffner doubled to right to score Johnny Lewis and Arnold Faust.

In all, eleven Rainier runners were left on the base paths.

Despite the impressive manner in which Betty Nuthall, the defending champion; Payliis Mudford and Mrs. Eileen Bennett Whistingstall swept into the semifinals, none is accorded better than an outside chance of halting Mrs. Moody's march to her seventh national championship. Pairings in the round before the final today pitted Mrs. Moody against Mrs. Whittingstall who turnished the one big upset of the quarter-finals. Flashing a deadly not attack, the British player put out Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Cal., Mrs. Moody dropped only three games in eliminating Dorothy Weisel of Sacramento; Cal., 6-1, 6-2, and Miss Nuthall had no more trouble with her countrywoman, Mrs. Dorothy C. Miss Mudford, however, had a fight on her hands to put out the American No. 1 player, Mrs. Lawrince A. Harper of Oakland, Cal., 4-6, 6-3, 8-6.

The combine is broken but the memory of his baseball "buddy" still remains. In the old days the phrase, "Tinker to Evers to Chance," was symbolic of the world's greatest infield, when the trio played with the Chicago Cubs.

Johnny Evers, now a scout for the Boston Braves, honors the memory of Chance, his former manager and playing partner, by placing a wreath on the monument at Los Angeles during a trip to the Pacific Coast.

B Kirkman of Sand Point, Seattle's city champion, for the second year in succession, has known the sensation of being runner-up in the women's golf cham-

Mrs. Kirkman was defeated yesterday at the Manitou course here by Mrs. Guy M. Riegel, Spokane's leading wielder of the big driver and his smaller brothers, 6 and 5.

A year ago at Earlington, Mrs. Kirkman similarly met defeat at the heands of Mrs. George, R. Johnson, playing on her home course. This year, incidentally, Mrs. Johnson, defeated in the first round match of the championship when decidedly not at her best, stuck around and with

Came Out Stronger

Came Out Stronger

The plucky little 114-pounder, instead of having weakened under the morning drubbing, came out physically and mentally stronger for the afternoon session. She won back four holes and only lost two. She outdrove and outironed her opponent to green after green, and but for a slight tendency to overrun her short approaches, she would have won at least three more holes. In brief, she was inside Mrs. Riegel on most of the holes up to the putting stage.

Mrs. Kirkman played the morning round in a condition of one mentally careless: She recognized the state, for Elizabeth Finn had played identically the same sort of a game against her the day before, but she was unable to remedy it no matter how much she tried and experimented with her shots.

The first five holes of the afternoon round were halved, both going

At the first, fourth and fifth, but for getting up too well for her own good.

She was taking her pitching irons

Then on the 350-yard sixth Mrs.

She was inside Mrs. Riegel at the tenth but failed to make the most of it, but she did win the eleventh. The gallery was delighted. It was almost solidly for the Seattle girl, because of the game fight she was making to struggle back.

This hysteria went up another couple of notches when Mrs. Kirkman won the twelfth with a parive as her opponent hooked under the trees.

The thirteenth is bordered on the left by a boundary fence of wire. The Seattle player's drive was pulled in close to the fence but she had plenty of space to swing for a second shot home at the 309-yard hole.

ANCOUVER, B. C., Saturday, Aug. 22.—With the greatest field of entries that has ever faced a starter in British Columbia, today's pre-Olympic track and field championship meet at Hastings Park is expected to turn in at least two new records.

with her shots.

She looked hopeless on almost every hole, and in fact only won three holes, once when her opponent 3-putted, once when she was trapped and lastly when Mrs.

Kirkman electrified the patient and suffering gallery by holling an approach for a birdle 3 at the seventeenth.

She got halves on but four holes, all on the first nine and was only 3 down at that first-quarter stage. On the second nine she didn't halve a hole but did lose seven, after winning the eleventh with a par and the seventeenth.

at least two new records. While the high point of the meet While the high point of the meet is expected from the meeting of Frank Wykoff, University of Southern California; Eddie Tolan of Michigan and Percy Williams of Vancouver, the cream of the sprint talent of the hemisphere, their meeting, however, is not rated as one of the events which will produce a record.

Wykoff Favorite

Wykoff and Tolan with their marks of 9.5 are not rated to have the stuff to shatter that figure today. But the race between the trio of speed demons will be one of America's great sprint performances of the year. Wykoff, with two wins this year over Tolan, is favorite to win today's century. Percy Williams, the double Olympic sprint winner of 1928, is not given much chance.

The 500 meter areas, in which Is not given much chance.

The 5,000-meter event, in which Walter Woodward and Roy Hall from the Washington Athletic Club will face Jack Melville, Burnaby ace, is likely to turn in one mark while the 1,500-meter race which includes Phil Edwards, the wonder from New York and member of the Canadian Olympic team of 1928; Hill, University of Oregon star who ran the fastest mile of the 1930 season; Ken Rhuddy, Washington A. C. star, and more of their lik, is due to hand in the other.

Hec Edmundson arrived yesterday

Is due to hand In the other.

Hec Edmundson arrived yesterday with a thirteen-man Washington A. C. team from Seattle. Edmundson has Frank Plumb, Chinook. Washington sub-freshman, entered in the 100 and 200 meters events. Edmundson does not figure to let his young star enter either senior race. Jim Abbott, Roosevelt High star and Washington A. C. dash expert, will also run in the junior sprints.

Harley Has Rose

Hartley Has Race Dan Bracken and Chuck Garrett will enter the high hurdle race for the W. A. C. with Hartley in the quarter.

Hartley will meet serious opposition in Woessner, U. S. C., who beat him by a hair in the national cham-pionship at Lincoln. Jimmy Ball, Canadian 440 entrant in the '28 Olympics, is also here to compete. FIGHTS the championship when decidedly not at her best, stuck around and with a constantly improving game won the first flight trophy, for those who were beaten in the opening round of the title engagement.

She defeated Mrs. G. B. Butterworth of Sand Point after a battle that went to the twentieth hole, a scrap in which neither was ever more than one hole up.

was ever more than one hole up. Apparently hopelessly down at the close of the morning eighteen holes yesterday, Mrs. Riegel having run up a total of eight holes on her, Mrs. Kirkman rewarded the larger gallery of the afternoon with one of the gamest comeback attempts ever offered on any man's course. There were enthusiastic Spokane golfers who declared it the linest golf any woman ever played at a stretch in their observation of the game.
