The Washington Open Invitational dates back to 1922. In that year, young Al Espinosa captured the crown at Yakima CC. Famous names in the champions list include Al and Emery Zimmerman, Al Mengert (who holds the record for most consecutive wins), Senior Tour Player Rick Acton and PGA Tour Player Fred Couples. Don Bies won as a club pro in 1959 and again in 1980 and 1987 after he retired from the PGA Tour. The current tournament record of 200 is held by PGA Professionals Tim Feenstra (2011) and Jeff Gove (2012). Jeff Coston's victory in 2021 was his record-setting sixth, moving him out of a tie for most wins with legend Chuck Congdon. Watch PGA Professional Blake Snyder defend his title against a full field of 168 PGA Professionals and top amateurs from the Pacific Northwest!
