Little Leaguers Set For Jamboree

The North baseball teams will try to even the series in the eighth annual Little League jamboree tomorrow night in Sicks' Stadium.

The South, which captured last year's event, 4-0, on a one-hitter, holds a four-three over-all bulge. After a draw tomorrow night, three three-inning "games" will be played to determine the winner.

The program will open at 7 o'clock with a parade of about 4,000 players from 128 "major" and 127 "minor" teams. The North will be represented by 12 leagues, the South by 13.

A portion of the donations received at the jamboree will go to the National Little League Foundation, a fund to continue the program.

President Eisenhower proclaimed next week as "Little League Week." Last Little League Association will put on special programs starting Monday.

Grand Slams Pace Little League Play

Lee Hottell clubbed two home runs—one with the bases loaded—and a double to lead the Grocers to an 8-4 victory over the Merchants in the West Seattle Little League yesterday.

Bill Gray's grand slam homer sparked Skyway Merchants to a 12-2 triumph over Bryn Mawr. Ken Smrz belted a bases-loaded homer for Loyalty Realty, but his team lost to Bob Rapp's, 15-8.

Bar-S scored all its runs on homers in a 6-5 victory over Carlson-Winquist. Gary Bullert had a pair of two-run clouts. Paul Nilson and Johnny Wunder hit solo home runs.

Ron Rispoli of the Yankees and Dave Bell of the Cardinals matched one-hitters. The Yankees won, 1-0, on a walk, two stolen bases and an error. Dick Hay's three-hit, 12-strike-out pitching helped Seattle Sports beat Albertson's, 5-0.

TRY AGAIN, CHARLIE: Charlie Congdon missed a 15-foot putt in yesterday's state open golf tournament at Overlake. Kneeling in the background was Bill Eggers.

Congdon and Eggers entered the final 18 in a tie with Don Bies. Bies won. Congdon tied for second; Eggers slipped to a tie for fifth.—Times photo by Harold Smith.

Bies Wins 1st Pro Outing

By BILL PROCHNAU

Don Bies, an impatient youngster who needs no tradition, passed and parried the area's most experienced hands yesterday for a one-stroke victory in the state open golf tournament at Overlake.

It was the first time Bies, a 21-year-old from Seattle Golf Club, had entered the tournament as a pro.

Bies, four strokes off the pace as he entered the final day, chased two strokes off the stubborn Overlake par to finish in 69-71.

Bies' 72-hole 286, two over par, was one ahead of a pair of tournament veterans, Charlie Congdon of Tacoma and Bob Duden of Oswego, Ore.

Bies finished 69. Bies entered the final 18 in a three-way tie with Congdon and Bill Eggers of Portland after whipping through the morning round in a two-under 69.

Bies, following the leaders and without a gallery most of the way, took the lead fairly, never faltered and coasted through the final hole with a bogey 5, his fourth over-par hole of the day.

Congdon, who sailed through the long day's first nine in three-under-par 32, lost the biggest advantage of the tournament when he finished the 18 with a shaky 39.

Duden faltered. Duden turned in two par rounds, but took a 4 on the par-three 15th the second round.
