The 66th edition of the Hudson Cup Matches is being held October 23-24 at Tualatin CC in Tualatin, OR. The Hudson Cup is patterned after the Ryder Cup with the top 10 Northwest professionals competing against the 10 top Northwest amateurs. Also the 23rd Senior Hudson Cup are being played at the same time. The Senior matches for those 50 and over will also feature 10 professionals against 10 amateurs. The teams were selected based on their competitive records throughout the 2014 season and represent the very best of Northwest golf. After the morning Foursome Matches the Amateur squad enjoyed leads in both the matches. After the first day matches, the matches are tied in the Hudson Cup Matches at 5 points each while the amateurs lead the professionals in the Senior Hudson Cup matches at 6 points to 4 points. The Senior Hudson Cup matches have the amateurs take the lead with 6 points to 4. Play concludes tomorrow with the singles matches.
